

DEVELOPING SUSTAINABLE PROJECTS

TRF's 'Pillars of Sustainability'

The Rotary Foundation defines sustainability as the capacity for maintaining outcomes long-term to serve the ongoing needs of a community after grant funds have been expended. To meet this criteria, Global Grants should incorporate practices from each of the six 'Pillars of Sustainability.' If not provided with grant funds, sponsors should demonstrate how these sustainability practices are being met through existing community services.

PLANNING

IMPLEMENTATION

REPORTING

Global Grant Timeline